The Kobus Geldenhuis – Nucor Crawfordsville Longest Drive Contest

in honor and memory

Jacobus Marthinus Andreas “Kobus” Geldenhuis, 50, passed away at his home on 5 August 2011. He was a devoted husband, father, co-worker and friend who will be deeply missed by all who knew him. He had great enthusiasm for life and utterly enjoyed his career as a metallurgical engineer with his Nucor Steel teammates. Mr. Geldenhuis was a member of AIST and its Electric Steelmaking and Metallurgy — Steelmaking & Casting Technology Committees. Apart from his work, he adored his family, enjoyed his friends, and had a passion for playing golf and tennis. Geldenhuis was born 28 April 1961 in Alberton, Transvaal, South Africa, and moved to Brownsburg, Ind., in 2006. He is survived by his wife, Charloom; son, Petrus Johannes (P.J.); and daughters, Ezelle and Yolandi; as well as brothers, Johan and Coenraad Geldenhuis, and sister, Reina Zastron.
